Offenses charged:

1. Encouraging Illegal Entry for Financial Gain

Date of Detention Hearing: September 12, 2022.

The Court, having conducted a detention hearing pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), and based upon the factual findings and statement of reasons for detention hereafter set forth, finds that no condition or combination of conditions which defendant can meet will reasonably assure the appearance of defendant as required and the safety of other persons and the community.

01            FINDINGS OF FACT AND STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION

02            1.        The government alleges that Defendant arranged to transport the alleged victim
03 unlawfully from Mexico to Washington and has since required the alleged victim to work long
04 hours in a physical job without compensation or adequate food. The government further 05 alleges that Defendant has subjected the alleged victim to repeated physical, emotional and
06 sexual abuse, including threats to kill the alleged victim and her children. Defendant has a
07 significant criminal history including failure to comply, failure to respond, refusal to cooperate,
08 harassing communication, first degree custodial interference, providing false information to an
09 officer, reckless endangerment, and resisting arrest. Defendant also has a conviction for fourth
10 degree assault, domestic violence, and an arrest in 2019 for violent conduct at a gas station.
11 Defendant's record reflects multiple failures to appear, although the most recent of these was 12 in 1992. The government alleges that at the time of the arrest in the instant matter, Defendant
13 stated to the arresting officers something to the effect of "if you guys come to Mexico, I'll [] 14 kill you."

15            2.        Defendant poses a risk of danger based on his history of violent conduct, alleged 16 threats of violence against the victim and her family, and threats to law enforcement officers at 17 the time of his arrest. His criminal history consistently demonstrates a contempt for law
18 enforcement and the Court. Defendant poses a risk of nonappearance based on his significant 19 connections to Mexico, and a history of failures to appear.

20            3.        There does not appear to be any condition or combination of conditions that will 21 reasonably assure the defendant's appearance at future Court hearings while addressing the 22 danger to other persons or the community.

01 It is therefore ORDERED:

- 02 1. Defendant shall be detained pending trial, and committed to the custody of the Attorney
03 General for confinement in a correction facility separate, to the extent practicable, from 04 persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;
- 05 2. Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel;
- 06 3. On order of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person 07 in charge of the corrections facility in which defendant is confined shall deliver the 08 defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a 09 court proceeding; and
- 10 4. The Clerk shall direct copies of this Order to counsel for the United States, to counsel for 11 the defendant, to the United States Marshal, and to the United State Probation Services
12 Officer.

13 DATED this 13th day of September, 2022.
